Call for Proposals for Health Promotion Projects

YELLOWKNIFE, NT — November 18, 2016 — The Northwest Territories' Francophone health network, the Réseau TNO Santé, has issued a call for proposals for health promotion projects that will increase individual and collective abilities to manage health and wellness in French. The Réseau TNO Santé invites all not-for-profit organizations, non-governmental organizations, schools, healthcare institutions and municipalities in the Northwest Territories to submit proposals by Friday, December 16, 2016. Related health promotion activities must be completed by March 31, 2017.

When submitting a proposal, groups should address the following criteria.

- Projects must address the needs of the Northwest Territories' Francophone community.
- Projects must aim to have a lasting impact on individual and community health.
- Projects must address at least one of the four strategic priorities identified in the national strategy for French-language health promotion in Canada developed by the Société Santé en français (SSF):
 - Influence public policy to achieve health equity for minority Francophone populations and communities across Canada.
 - Support action on key determinants of health to foster community development living standards conducive to good health and wellness.
 - Empower communities to promote health and wellness in French;
 - Develop the knowledge and skills necessary to adopt best practices in health promotion.

Individual projects are eligible for financial assistance of up to $2500. Projects must be completed before March 31, 2017.

The Réseau Santé TNO will give priority to the following categories of proposals:

- Projects that address needs in the communities of Fort Smith, Inuvik and Hay River (either exclusively or in part).
- Projects that involve collaboration between multiple organizations.

To submit a proposal, please complete the attached form.

Forms must either be emailed to santetno@franco-nord.com or delivered (by mail or in person) to the following address:

Réseau TNO
Santé 5016 48th Street
PO Box 1325
Yellowknife NT X1A 2N9

Deadline: Proposals must be received before 4 pm on December 16, 2016.

Any questions can be addressed to Audrey Fournier by phone at 867-920-2919 ext. 261 or by email at santetno@franco-nord.com.

Réseau TNO Santé is a not-for-profit organization that collaborates with various partners to improve access to quality health programs and services in French for the Francophone population of the Northwest Territories. The organization brings together representatives of selected community groups, educational institutions and the territorial government, as well as health services managers and other health professionals. It is also one of 16 provincial and territorial French-language health networks funded by Health Canada through the Société Santé en français, in the context of the Roadmap for Canada's Official Languages 2013–2018: Education, Immigration and Communities.
